1. Introduction

A network of Liaisons is established between DIRAC and other relevant projects, through which researchers can be exchanged and future collaboration can be achieved. This collaboration can take on diverse forms, such as the joint organization of summer schools and workshops, the exchange of undergraduate, graduate, Master and PhD students, providing tutorials by visiting senior researchers and professors, etc ...

1.1 Liaisons

During the past months several European projects which were deemed relevant to DIRAC's goals were contacted to join the Liaison network. In the following sections, we list the contacted projects, those who became members and those who are still considering joining the network

1.1.1 Participating Projects

The following projects have taken up the offer to form stronger bonds through our Liaison network:

Project	Contact Person
EuroMasters in Language and Speech	Frank Van Eynde
AMI Project	Phil Green
VISIONTRAIN Project	Radu Horaud

1.1.2 Projects under Consideration

The following projects have been contacted but are still taking the offer under consideration:

- PASCAL
- EPOCH Network of Excellence
- DECISIONS IN MOTION

1.1.3 Projects suggested to be contacted

The following projects will be contacted with the offer to join DIRAC's Liaison network:

- CoSy Project
- Hermes Project

2. Conclusion

The Liaison network already can count on some participating projects. However, the list is still under expansion and will be updated as soon as possible.
